

Around von Neumann's inequality

Catalin Badea (University of Lille, France and University of Reading, UK)

We present several applications, variations, and extensions of the classical von Neumann inequality. This inequality states that if T is a contraction on a Hilbert space and p is a polynomial, then the norm of $p(T)$ is bounded above by the supremum of $|p(z)|$ over the unit disk.